City Election in Dallas—Arrivals From the East—Important Real Estate Sale.

DALLAS, Nov. 7.—Hon. J. D. Lee returns to The Dalles to-day.

The city election resulted as follows: Councilmen, J. J. Williams, J. F. Groves, Felix Noel, H. B. Plummer, George Tillotson; recorder, A. V. R. Snyder; marshal, F. M. Collins.

About fifty German immigrants from Manitoba have arrived in Dallas. These are the advance guard of a large number who will set up their home altars here.

The academy students will give an entertainment during court week.

Circuit court convenes December 2.

Milo Woods and Miss Otho Williams were married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. J. Williams, Wednesday morning. The happy couple took the afternoon train for Portland, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Commissioners' court is now in session.

Fred J. Wagner, who recently arrived here with his family from Nebraska, has two sons in The Dalles who crossed the plains in the good old style, expecting to meet the rest at that place. Hence a comedy of errors. Mr. Wagner wrote to his sons to-night telling them he had found God's country, and that they should come to Dallas immediately.

L. T. Miller, of Washington county, was visiting friends here this week.

There was filed to-day in the county clerk's office a deed to the Butler tract, lying between Moumouth and Independence. It was purchased by the Polk County Land Company, consisting of the following named persons: J. J. Daly, T. A. Patterson, D. W. Sears, H. Hirschberg and T. J. Lee, the price paid being $12,800. The land will be divided up in small tracts and town lots.
