
FLY FROM FATHER.

Special to The Post-Intelligencer.

ABERDEEN, June 12.—Fear of bodily injury at the hands of their father drove three little children of Leo Mossinski, a Polish laborer, to forsake their home and beg food and shelter in a restaurant. The father was beating the mother and the children thought their turn was next. The case is in the hands of the police and the Associated Charities.
