

TOLD TO STAY OUT

Atlin Miners Deport 58 Japanese Laborers.

SENT TOWARD VANCOUVER

Three Hundred Men Escort Orientals to Steamer Gleaner—Threatened With Violence if They Offer to Return.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 20.—(Special.)—Fifty-seven Japanese miners, arriving at Atlin last night to work in the mines, were escorted to the river steamer Gleaner by 300 whites this morning and started back toward Vancouver. The white miners served notice upon the Japanese that if they did not stay away violence would be shown in protecting the diggings against Asiatic labor.

The Japanese are almost destitute and will be turned loose on Skagway, Alaska. Late tonight an immediate demand will be made that the Canadian Pacific take the Japanese laborers back to Vancouver. If they are not handled by that company, Skagway people will provide for their deportation.

Atlin is in British Columbia and the outbreak of the white miners against Japanese labor is a continuation of the agitation against Asiatic labor that resulted in the Vancouver riots.

This is the second anti-Oriental demonstration in the Atlin district. Skagway cablegrams say the first occurred when 30 Japanese sent from Vancouver were driven out by the whites less than a year ago.

BLOODY PICTURE IS PAINTED

Labor Party Demands of Canada That Japanese Be Excluded.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 20.—(Special.)—"In the event of war between Japan and working on the Canadian Pacific Railway would burn the bridges and dynamite the tunnels on that line. British Columbia would be cut off from the rest of Canada. The government of the Dominion of Canada will not exclude the Japanese. British Columbia knows her rights and will exercise her power. This province will not be made the scapegoat for the empire."

In this language a committee of Vancouver laborites today painted the blood-thirsty Japanese in an interview with W. D. Scott, chief immigration commissioner for the Dominion government. Scott has been sent here by the Federal Government to make a complete investigation of the Oriental problem. The labor men urge that the Anglo-Japanese treaty be abrogated so far as Canada is concerned.

Dr. Monro, the Vancouver immigration inspector, admitted that the Japanese government had been for years breaking the terms of the agreement. Thousands of Japanese had been landed direct from Japan as well as from Honolulu, and in allowing the former to come the Japanese government had departed from its agreement.

The proposal of a friendly understanding to limit immigration supposed to have been partially reached between Delegate Ishii and Premier Laurier is scouted by the labor men in the interview tonight. The stock arguments of the helplessness of the Hindus and the non-assimilation of the Japs with the Canadian people were all quoted by the labor delegates to the commissioner, who promised to include these views in his report to the government.

EXCLUSION LEADER IS INSANE

Secretary Fowler Arrested by Bellingham Chief of Police.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Sept. 20.—(Special.)—W. A. Fowler, secretary of the Japanese-Corean Exclusion League, was arrested tonight and taken to the County Jail, and tomorrow the Prosecuting Attorney will swear out a complaint charging him with insanity. Fowler this afternoon was ordered by the Chief of Police to leave town, but he refused to go, and tonight the chief arrested him.

Several days ago C. O. Young, of the Seattle Labor Council, arrived here and attempted to induce Fowler to return to Seattle. The Exclusion League also ordered him to return, and today Fowler's father tried to get him to go. Fowler, however, insisted on staying here.

He has billed the town with posters, saying he will lecture here Sunday on how to prevent Japanese riots. He also has taken large spaces in the newspapers advertising his lectures.
