
ITALIAN WORKERS ARE ASKED TO ORGANIZE

A novelty among the bulletins posted in the Labor Temple this week is a notice printed in Italian calling upon all Italian laborers to attend organization meetings to be held in Hall No. 10 every Saturday night until further notice for the purpose of organizing an Italian local of the Hod Carriers, Building and Common Laborers' International Union. The meetings are to be under the direction of Local No. 242 of the international at the request of which an Italian organizer was sent
