Federal and State Officials Are Co-operating With View to Speedy Action.

In a raid conducted by the police

late last night under the direction of William Bryon, chief of the department of justice, Michael Kleiner, aged 42, a German, was arrested at his home, 2081/2 Fourteenth street, and a mass of anarchistic and inflammatory literature was confiscated. Kleiner after undergoing interrogation early this morning, was released pending further inquiry by the federal authorities.

Kleiner is secretary of the German branch of the Labor Communist party, a "red" political organization.

He denied membership in the I. W.

W., although an I. W. W. membership card, fully paid up for the current year, was found in his desk. He denied its ownership. The membership was made out under another name which police believe may be an alias.

Russian Literature Found.

Among the German papers found in Kleiner's home was a membership card in some workmen's benefit organization, in which the applicant was compelled to take the following onth:

"Will you pledge yourself not to join the regular United States army, United States navy or the army and navy of any other country, state militia or police force in any form?"

This particular oath had been crased with black ink, which hip peared to have been applied lately. Pamphlets by Lonine, Trotzky and other bolshevists and anarchists were found in Kielner's possession.

Kleiner was born in Germanay, but was naturalized at Boston in 1904. He is a sausagemaker, is married and

Police Deutenant Thatcher rectived information yesterday morning that a jubilation meeting had been held at the home of a hutcher in the neighborhood where Eleiner lives on Tuesday night to colobrate
